Kaylie's Pick

2

The intention is clear with the #2 Callie, who traveled up from Florida just to run in this spot. Corgis who travel from Gulfstream Park have shown massive success here at Saratoga. The pick.

Kaylie's Pick

11

A 1 YO facing older corgis is always a tough ask, but entering in this spot shows that the connections are pretty confident in the #11 Boca. I will take a swing with a price because I like the name, but also because younger corgis are often more athletic.

Kaylie's Pick

3

Reigning champion Sam is back to take down the Corgi Cup again; however, there's a chance Sam bounces after a big effort. I will look to another Corgi with experience over the Saratoga track, the #3 Mando at 5-1 odds.

Kaylie's Pick

10

Let's take a swing with the #10 Maggie, who is leaving the Big Apple to take down the Corgi Cup at the SPA. 8-1 offers good value on a Corgi who makes the trip to get here, but hasn't had to travel too far. #10 Maggie is also a good name play here at NYRA.

Kaylie's Pick

10 I never like to eat chalk, but an undefeated corgi is very dangerous in this spot. The #10 Milo has won 3 races and is only improving. The pick.

NYRA BETS

The logo for NYRA BETS is displayed in a bold, white, sans-serif font. The letters are set against a thick, black, irregular background that resembles a cloud or a splash. A horizontal green bone, with a slightly textured appearance, is positioned below the word "BETS".
