FAN CODE OF CONDUCT

NYRA is committed to providing every guest with a safe, welcoming, and memorable experience at Belmont Park. Whether you are joining us for a race day, a concert, or a special event, every guest plays an important role in creating an environment that is enjoyable for all. We want you to have fun, feel safe, and leave looking forward to your next visit. With that in mind, all guests are expected to comply with the following Code of Conduct at all times while on Belmont Park property.

All guests have the right to expect an environment where:

- You are treated in a consistent, professional, and courteous manner by all NYRA staff
- You enjoy every event free from disruptive, abusive, or threatening behavior
- You feel safe and comfortable throughout your visit
- Your concerns are heard and addressed promptly by NYRA Guest Services

Guest Expectations

- Treat all guests, NYRA staff, jockeys, horse handlers, athletes, and performers with courtesy and respect at all times
- Guests are expected to treat each other with respect. Use of abusive or derogatory language will result in automatic ejection.
- Fighting, shoving, and any unwanted physical contact are strictly prohibited
- Guests must not engage in harassing, intimidating, threatening or abusive conduct toward any individual, including by intentionally photographing, filming, livestreaming, or otherwise recording an identifiable individual in a manner that interferes with such individual's enjoyment of the premises.
- Climbing on seats, railings, fences, trees, or any other fixture or structure is prohibited
- Do not block or obstruct the view of other guests
- Do not sit, stand, or congregate in aisles or walkways other than in the normal course of entering or exiting your seating area
- Follow posted signage and instructions from NYRA staff regarding movement through the venue, particularly during live racing
- Guests are strictly prohibited from entering the track, apron rail, paddock, winner's circle, barn area, or any other restricted area without explicit NYRA authorization

- Do not attempt to touch, feed, startle, or otherwise interact with horses or their handlers without permission
- Do not throw any object onto the track or into any area where horses or personnel are present
- Loud noises, sudden movements, radios, speakers, or any behavior near the track that may startle horses or interfere with racing operations is prohibited
- Guests consuming alcoholic beverages must do so responsibly and in compliance with all applicable laws
- NYRA reserves the right to deny alcohol service to any guest at any time
- Guests who appear intoxicated upon entry may be denied admission
- Guests must be appropriately dressed at all times, including wearing a shirt, bottoms, and footwear. Please refer to the Belmont Park Dress Code for area-specific guidelines
- Clothing, accessories, or signage displaying offensive, indecent, or inappropriate language or imagery is prohibited
- Guests may not engage in any advertising, marketing, promotional, or commercial activity on Belmont Park property without prior written authorization from NYRA
- Distribution of pamphlets, materials, or unsolicited items is prohibited
- Political or cause-based advocacy activities, including the distribution of materials or obstruction of access to any area, are prohibited
- Guests must comply with all posted signs and notices throughout the venue
- Guests must follow all instructions from NYRA staff and security personnel regarding venue operations, safety procedures, and emergency response
- Guests must comply with all applicable federal, state, and local laws while on Belmont Park property

Guests who fail to comply with this Code of Conduct may be subject to any or all of the following, at NYRA's sole discretion:

- Immediate ejection from Belmont Park without refund
- Revocation of future ticket privileges
- A ban from attending future NYRA events at any NYRA property
- Referral to law enforcement, which may result in arrest and prosecution

Re-entry is not permitted following ejection. NYRA reserves the right to modify this Code of Conduct at any time and to determine non-compliance at its sole discretion. Additional rules and procedures may apply for specific events.

RIGHT OF ADMISSION

NYRA reserves the right to refuse admission to or remove any guest from Belmont Park at its sole discretion. Guests who are removed for violations of NYRA policy are not entitled to a refund.

Grounds for Denial of Admission or Removal

NYRA and its authorized personnel may deny entry to or remove any guest who:

- Has violated, or is suspected of violating, the Belmont Park Guest Code of Conduct or any other NYRA policy
- Appears to be intoxicated or under the influence of illegal substances upon arrival
- Is in possession of any prohibited item as outlined in the Belmont Park Prohibited Items Policy
- Presents a ticket that is invalid, counterfeit, expired, or has already been scanned
- Has been previously ejected from Belmont Park or any other NYRA property and has not received written reinstatement authorization

- Is subject to an active trespass notice or ban from any NYRA property
- Engages in disruptive, threatening, or unlawful behavior on or near Belmont Park property
- Fails to comply with the instructions of NYRA staff, security personnel, or law enforcement

PRIVACY & DATA USE

NYRA collects certain personal data in connection with ticketing, mobile payments, and venue operations, including CCTV footage for security purposes. Data is used in accordance with NYRA's Privacy Policy, available at <https://www.nyra.com/privacy-policy/>. Guests who use the NYRA Bets app or purchase tickets are subject to the terms and conditions of those platforms.

CCTV

Belmont Park utilizes closed-circuit television (CCTV) and security camera systems throughout the venue for the safety and security of all guests, staff, and participants. Footage may be shared with law enforcement as required.

SECURITY & SCREENING PROCEDURES

The safety and security of our guests, staff, horses, and participants is NYRA's highest priority. All guests entering Belmont Park are subject to security screening as a condition of entry. NYRA thanks guests in advance for their cooperation and patience, which helps ensure a safe and enjoyable experience for everyone.

Screening Requirements

All guests, bags, packages, and personal items are subject to inspection upon entry to Belmont Park. Screening measures include weapons and contraband detection systems. Guests who refuse to submit to screening will be denied entry. Possession of a valid ticket does not exempt any guest from screening requirements.

Entry Process

- All guests must present a valid ticket if required for scanning prior to or during the screening process
- Guests should be prepared to open bags and remove items as directed by security personnel
- Items that cannot be adequately screened may be denied entry at the discretion of NYRA security staff
- Guests found to be in possession of prohibited items will be directed to return those items to their vehicle. Where items cannot be removed, the guest may be denied entry
- All bags are subject to search and must clear screening for admission to the facility
- NYRA does not assume responsibility for items left unattended outside entry gates

Prohibited Items

All guests are subject to the Belmont Park Prohibited Items Policy. A full list of prohibited items is available at HERE and posted at all entry gates.

Accessible Screening

NYRA is committed to providing a dignified and respectful screening experience for all guests, including those with disabilities or medical needs.

- Dedicated accessible screening lanes are available at all primary entry gates
- Guests with medical devices, implants, or conditions that may be affected by metal detection equipment should inform a security supervisor upon arrival
- Medical bags, mobility aids, and assistive devices are permitted and will be screened with care and respect

Major Events

On designated major event days, including Belmont Stakes Racing Festival, concerts and other large non-racing events, enhanced screening procedures may be in effect. Guests attending major event days are encouraged to review event-specific information and screening guidelines in advance and to allow additional time for entry.

General Guidelines

- NYRA security personnel are authorized to conduct screening at any point within Belmont Park, not only at entry gates
- Law enforcement personnel may be present and may conduct independent screening or searches in accordance with applicable law
- NYRA reserves the right to modify screening procedures at any time based on security conditions, event requirements, or direction from law enforcement
- Guests with questions or concerns regarding the screening process should speak with a NYRA security supervisor or contact Guest Services

PROHIBITED ITEMS

To ensure the safety, security, and enjoyment of all guests, certain items are prohibited from being brought onto Belmont Park property. This policy applies to all guests, vendors, contractors, and media personnel unless otherwise authorized in writing by NYRA. Prohibited items will not be held or stored by NYRA. Guests found in possession of prohibited items will be directed to return them to their vehicle or surrender them prior to entry. Prohibited items include:

Weapons, Dangerous Items, Illegal & Controlled Substances

NYRA facilities including all areas of the properties are Weapons Free Areas. NO WEAPONS of any kind are permitted on the grounds, offices, dormitories, public areas or vehicles in the backstretch. Any person found in a possession of a weapon is subject to exclusion from the property and possibly arrest. Prohibited items include:

Security Screening & Inspection Authority

- NYRA security personnel have the authority to inspect any bag, package, or personal item at any point of entry or within Belmont Park
- Guests found in possession of prohibited items after entry may be subject to removal from the venue in accordance with the Belmont Park Right of Admission Policy
- Prohibited items will not be stored by NYRA. Guests who are unable or unwilling to remove prohibited items from the property may be denied entry without refund
- Weapons and illegal items may be confiscated and turned over to law enforcement
- NYRA reserves the right to expand this list at any time, including for specific events. Event-specific prohibited item lists will be communicated in advance
- Inspections may occur at any designated point of entry or anywhere within the Belmont Park grounds.
- Guests found with prohibited items inside the venue face immediate removal under the Belmont Park Right of Admission Policy.

PROFANITY

In the interest of fostering family-friendly events, the use of foul and/or abusive language or obscene gestures will not be tolerated at Belmont Park. Guests who choose to behave in this manner may be subject to ejection, arrest, and possible loss of access to future races. The use of derogatory language concerning race, color, ethnicity, gender, religion, age, or sexual orientation, and any other immutable characteristics results in automatic ejection. Guests wishing to report those individuals using foul/abusive language may notify any Guest Services representative.

BAG POLICY

General Bag Policy

Belmont Park welcomes guests to bring personal bags into the venue. To ensure the safety and security of all guests, all bags are subject to inspection at entry. For certain events with enhanced security measures, more stringent or restrictive bag policies may be enacted.

Permitted Bags:

The following bag types are permitted at Belmont Park on standard race and event days:

- Bags and backpacks no larger than 16 x 8 x 16 inches
- Medical bags and diaper bags (see exceptions below)

Prohibited Bags:

The following bag types are not permitted at Belmont Park:

- Coolers of any size
- Hard-sided bags, cases, or containers of any kind
- Luggage and oversized bags
- Camera bags and equipment cases without a valid NYRA media credential
- Any bag that cannot be fully inspected by security personnel at entry

NYRA security personnel reserve the right to determine at their discretion whether a bag is of reasonable size and appropriate for entry. Guests arriving with prohibited bags will be directed to return them to their vehicle prior to entry

Diaper & Medical Bags

Diaper bags are permitted when accompanied by an infant and are subject to security inspection. Guests may bring required medical supplies, medications, insulin equipment, and assistive devices into the venue. Items must be transported in an appropriate bag or container and are subject to mandatory security inspection.

Cooler Policy *Also in F&B

Coolers of any kind are not permitted on Belmont Park property. This applies to all areas of the venue, including the backyard, infield and West Lawn, and covers both hard-sided and soft-sided coolers of any size.

Guests are welcome to purchase a variety of food and beverages from NYRA concessionaries located throughout the venue. Please refer to the Food and Beverage policies Insert Link for what is permitted on the venue grounds.

Bag Lockers

There is no bag check available on-site at Belmont Park.

TICKETING

Belmont Park uses mobile ticketing as its primary ticketing platform, delivering a faster, more secure, and more convenient entry experience for all guests. NYRA is committed to ensuring that all guests can access their tickets easily, and accommodations are available for guests who require printed tickets.

Mobile Ticketing

Mobile ticketing is the preferred and recommended method for all Belmont Park ticketed events. Tickets purchased through Ticketmaster are delivered digitally and accessible directly from your mobile device.

- Download the Belmont Park App App Store or Google Play and log in to your account to access your tickets prior to arrival
- Ensure your screen brightness is turned up and your ticket barcode is pulled up and ready before approaching the entry gate
- Mobile tickets may be transferred to other guests via the Belmont Park App or Ticketmaster AccountManager. For additional support, please visit NYRA's Mobile Ticketing FAQ
- NYRA recommends downloading and saving your tickets to your device's wallet in advance in the event of limited connectivity at the venue

- Each ticket barcode is unique and may only be scanned once. Duplicate or copied barcodes will be rejected at entry

Printed Tickets

NYRA recognizes that not all guests have access to or are comfortable with mobile devices. Physical tickets are available and accepted at all Belmont Park entry gates.

- Will-call tickets are available for collection at the Ticketmaster Box Office located at the East Entry
- Valid government-issued photo ID matching the name on the ticket is required for will-call collection
- Printed tickets are subject to the same one-scan policy as mobile tickets. Photocopied or duplicated printed tickets will be voided

Ticket Validity & Entry

- All tickets are valid for the specific date and event printed on the ticket only
- Tickets must be presented at the entry gate corresponding to the seating area or access level printed on the ticket
- NYRA staff reserve the right to request ticket presentation at any point within the venue
- Entry may be refused for tickets that are invalid, expired, counterfeit, previously scanned, or obtained in violation of NYRA's ticket resale policy
- Possession of a valid ticket does not guarantee entry and is subject to compliance with all NYRA policies, including the Belmont Park Guest Code of Conduct and Right of Admission Policy (insert link)

Purchasing Tickets

- Tickets for Belmont Park events are available through Ticketmaster, the Belmont Park App, and FEVO.
- NYRA strongly encourages guests to purchase tickets through official channels only. Tickets purchased through unauthorized third-party resellers may be invalid and are not eligible for refund or replacement
- For major event days, including the Belmont Stakes Racing Festival and Breeders' Cup, advance purchase is strongly recommended as events may sell out.

Ticket Transfer & Resale

- Tickets may be transferred to another guest via the Belmont Park App or Ticketmaster account manager up until the time of entry
- Tickets resold in violation of NYRA's resale policy may be voided without refund
- NYRA is not responsible for tickets purchased through unauthorized channels that are found to be invalid at entry
- For additional support, please visit NYRA's Mobile Ticketing FAQ.

Lost, Stolen or Damaged Tickets

- Lost or stolen printed tickets cannot always be replaced. Guests are strongly encouraged to use mobile ticketing to avoid this risk
- Damaged printed tickets with illegible barcodes may not be accepted. Contact the NYRA Box Office at boxoffice@nyrainc.com as soon as possible if your printed ticket is damaged prior to the event

Age & Child Admission

- Guests 12 and under are admitted free to General Admission areas when accompanied by a ticketed adult. Major events such as the Belmont Stake and Breeders' Cup may vary in policy
- Children ages 4 – 12 in reserved, premium, or hospitality areas require a valid child ticket. Children 3 and under do not require a ticket

Refunds & Exchanges

- All ticket sales are final. Tickets are non-refundable and non-exchangeable except in the case of event cancellation by NYRA per the Event Cancellation Policy (insert link)
- Racing at Belmont Park is conducted rain or shine. Weather delays do not constitute grounds for refund

Accessibility

- Belmont Park provides ADA-accessible seating throughout all ticketed areas. Companion seats are available adjacent to all accessible seating locations. To reserve accessible seating, please visit the Ticketmaster Box Office located at the East Entry upon arrival or select accessible seating options during ticket purchase.
- Guests requiring ticketing assistance due to disability or special need are encouraged to contact NYRA Guest Services in advance of their visit

Re-Entry

Re-entry is permitted with hand stamps during regular race days but may be restricted on major event days. All guests are subject to security screening upon re-entry.

Opening Time

Door opening times for Belmont Park will vary according to each event. For typical racing days, doors will open 2 hours prior to the scheduled start time. Please refer to specific details for major event days.

EVENT CANCELLATION

Racing at Belmont Park is conducted rain or shine. In the event that a race day is cancelled or otherwise affected without a specific cancellation policy such as the Belmont Stakes Racing Festival or Breeders' Cup, the following refund and credit policy applies.

Cancellation Prior to Park Opening

If racing is cancelled prior to Belmont Park opening to the public, and NYRA does not intend to reschedule the affected event:

- NYRA will issue ticket credits or refunds for all tickets and pre-paid parking purchased directly through Ticketmaster or the NYRA Sales Team (844-NYRA-TIX)
- Tickets purchased through third-party vendors are not eligible for a refund from NYRA. Guests who purchased through a third-party vendor must contact that vendor directly for assistance
- In the event of a cancellation of live racing, the Post Parade and Pocket Program of that day can be exchanged for the same publication within the next two (2) live racing days only. If live racing is cancelled after the 5th race of the day there will not be any exchanges of the Post Parade and Pocket Program.

Cancellation After Park Opening, After the Completion of the 5th Race

If racing is cancelled for any reason after five (5) races have been run, no refunds or exchanges of any kind will be issued.

ACCESSIBILITY

NYRA is committed to providing an inclusive and welcoming experience for all guests at Belmont Park. We believe that every guest deserves equal access to the excitement of horse racing, and we have designed Belmont Park to meet and exceed the requirements of the Americans with Disabilities Act (ADA) and all applicable New York State accessibility standards. Guests with accessibility needs are encouraged to contact NYRA Guest Services in advance of their visit so that we can best prepare to accommodate them.

Accessible Seating & Companions

- ADA-accessible seating is available throughout Belmont Park across all ticketed areas and price levels
- Each accessible seat includes at least one adjacent companion seat for a guest accompanying the individual with a disability
- Accessible seating may be reserved in advance through Ticketmaster or the Belmont Park App
- Guests who require accessible seating but did not reserve in advance should speak with a NYRA Guest Services representative upon arrival and we will do our best to accommodate

Accessible Entry & Movement

- Accessible entry gates are available at all primary entrances to Belmont Park
- Elevator and ramp access is available throughout the venue to all ticketed levels and public areas
- Accessible routes are clearly marked and maintained throughout the venue on all event days. Wheelchairs are available to assist guests if required
- Guests requiring assistance navigating the venue are encouraged to speak with a Guest Services representative

ADA Parking

- Accessible parking is available in all parking lots and is conveniently located near ADA-accessible shuttle services and main building entrances.
- Accessible parking spaces are available on a first-come, first-served basis and require a valid state-issued ADA parking placard or license plate.

Service Animals

- Service animals as defined by the Americans with Disabilities Act are welcome at Belmont Park at all times
- Service animals must be harnessed, leashed, or tethered and remain under the handler's control at all times. Animals that are unable to be controlled may be removed from Belmont Park.
- Emotional support animals and pets are not permitted at Belmont Park under this policy. Please refer to the Belmont Park Animals Policy for further information

Nursing Rooms & Family Restrooms

- Family restrooms with changing tables are available at multiple locations throughout the venue
- A private nursing suite is available at on the first floor at Belmont Park is complimentary for guests with infants and young children

HEALTH & SAFETY

Smoking

Smoking and vaping are strictly banned in all indoor spaces, covered areas, and enclosed seating. This policy strictly adheres to the New York State Clean Indoor Air Act and Nassau County ordinances. Smoking is restricted entirely to marked outdoor locations to protect guests, staff, and horses.

Guests are asked to:

- Use designated receptacles for cigarette and cigar disposal and do not discard smoking materials on the ground
- Be mindful of other guests in and around designated smoking areas
- Ensure that smoke does not drift toward non-smoking areas, food service areas, or areas where children are present
- Guests consuming cigars and/or marijuana are expected to do so responsibly and in a manner that does not affect the experience of other guests
- Guests under the age of 21 are prohibited from consuming marijuana or cannabis products on Belmont Park property in accordance with New York State law

Emergency & Medical Services

Medical services are available throughout Belmont Park.

- First Aid Stations: Medical personnel staff multiple first aid stations throughout the facility
- Defibrillator Availability: Automated External Defibrillators (AEDs) are located at all first aid stations and key points across the venue
- Emergency Response: If a medical emergency occurs, immediately alert the nearest venue staff member or security officer

Weather Policy

Racing and events at Belmont Park are conducted rain or shine. In the event of incoming severe weather, safety protocols will be activated. Guests will be directed to designated shelter areas via PA announcement.

Emergency Procedures

Public address (PA) announcements and emergency personnel will guide guests during incidents. Locate and familiarize yourself with the nearest marked exits immediately upon arrival. Follow all directions from security and venue staff without delay. Emergency exits and shelter pathways are clearly illuminated throughout the facility.

Lost Person

NYRA takes the safety of all guests, particularly children and vulnerable individuals, extremely seriously. Belmont Park has established procedures to assist any guest who becomes separated from their group. If you or someone in your party becomes separated, please contact the nearest NYRA staff member immediately or proceed to the closest Guest Services location.

If your child is missing or you become separated from your group:

- Immediately notify the nearest NYRA staff member, security personnel, or Guest Services representative
- NYRA security will initiate a venue-wide response immediately upon notification
- Do not leave Belmont Park to search independently. Our team is best positioned to coordinate a safe and efficient response from within the venue

Tips for keeping your family together:

- Designate a meeting point at the start of your visit in the event you become separated
- Ensure children are aware of the Guest Services locations
- Consider writing your name and cell phone number on a wristband or piece of paper for young children to carry

EQUIPMENT & TECHNOLOGY

Guest Photography, Recording & Media Rights

Guests may take photographs and brief video recordings within publicly accessible areas of Belmont Park solely for their personal, non-commercial use, provided such activity does not interfere with the event or the enjoyment, safety, or security of others. NYRA may prohibit photography, videography, or recording in designated areas or during certain events.

Except as expressly authorized in writing by NYRA, guests may not photograph, film, videotape, record, livestream, broadcast, transmit, reproduce, publish, distribute, display, sell, license, monetize, commercially exploit, or otherwise use or permit others to use any audio, video, photograph, recording, or other depiction of any race, event, performance, wagering activity, or other activity occurring at Belmont Park for any commercial purpose or in any manner that substitutes for, replicates, competes with, impairs, or otherwise exploits NYRA's or its licensors' broadcast, simulcast, streaming, media, sponsorship, wagering, data, intellectual property, or other proprietary rights, including by creating, distributing, transmitting, or facilitating any unauthorized live or delayed coverage of any race, performance, official event presentation, official broadcast, simulcast, livestream, race replay, timing data, wagering data, or other official event coverage.

Entry to Belmont Park constitutes a limited, revocable license. Any photography, recording, livestreaming, transmission, publication, distribution, or other use of content in violation of this policy constitutes an unauthorized use of that license. NYRA reserves the right to revoke a guest's license to enter or remain on the premises, remove any guest who violates this policy, deny future admission, require the removal of content posted or distributed in violation of this policy, and pursue any other contractual, equitable, or legal remedies available under applicable law. By entry to Belmont Park, guests agree to comply with any request for removal of content posted in violation of this policy.

Nothing in this policy grants any guest any ownership interest in, or right to commercially exploit, NYRA's trademarks, service marks, copyrighted works, broadcasts, race footage, event presentations, audio-visual productions, video board content, racing data, or any other intellectual property or proprietary rights owned or controlled by NYRA or its licensors.

Photography, Filming & Recording Notice

By entering Belmont Park, including any parking areas, exterior grounds, concourses, hospitality spaces, grandstands, seating areas, barns, the backstretch, restricted areas, or any other portion of the property (collectively, the “Premises”), you acknowledge and agree to the following:

A. Commercial and Promotional Recording

You acknowledge that you may be photographed, filmed, videotaped, livestreamed, or otherwise recorded by or on behalf of NYRA, event promoters, racing participants, broadcasters, media organizations, sponsors, licensees, vendors, and their respective affiliates, successors, and assigns. By entering the Premises, you irrevocably grant NYRA and such parties the unrestricted right and license to capture, use, reproduce, publish, display, distribute, transmit, perform, edit, modify, create derivative works from, and otherwise exploit your name, image, likeness, voice, appearance, and other identifying characteristics, whether alone or in combination with other materials, in any media or format now known or later developed, throughout the world, in perpetuity, without compensation, notice, inspection, or approval. Such recordings may be used for any lawful purpose, including live event presentation, television and radio broadcasts, streaming, news reporting, documentary programming, advertising, marketing, sponsorship activation, social media, archival purposes, commercial exploitation, and the development, testing, training, and operation of technologies, including artificial intelligence, machine learning, computer vision, analytics, and similar technologies. You waive any right to inspect or approve any finished product or its use and release NYRA, event organizers, participating leagues, racing associations, promoters, broadcasters, sponsors, vendors, media organizations, and each of their respective officers, directors, employees, agents, contractors, affiliates, successors, licensees, and assigns from any claims arising from the authorized use of such recordings, including claims based upon rights of privacy, publicity, or similar rights, except as prohibited by applicable law.

B. Security, Safety, Racing Integrity, and Regulatory Recording

Belmont Park is a regulated sports and entertainment venue and pari-mutuel racing facility. To protect the safety and security of guests, participants, employees, and horses, preserve the integrity of racing and wagering, safeguard NYRA property and operations, and comply with applicable federal, state, and local laws and regulations, the Premises are subject to continuous or intermittent video, audio, photographic, and other surveillance and monitoring.

NYRA may capture, maintain, review, use, disclose, and retain such recordings for security, public safety, emergency response, crowd management, access control, law enforcement, racing integrity, equine safety, wagering integrity, regulatory oversight, licensing and disciplinary matters, investigations, incident response, claims administration, litigation, risk management, loss prevention, operational purposes, training, and audit purposes, and as otherwise permitted or required by applicable law.

Such recordings may be shared with law enforcement agencies, emergency responders, governmental authorities, regulatory bodies, insurers, event promoters, security providers, legal counsel, and other authorized third parties whenever NYRA determines such disclosure is appropriate to fulfill its legal, regulatory, operational, or business responsibilities or as otherwise permitted or required by law.

Nothing in this Notice limits NYRA's right or obligation to conduct surveillance or monitoring in furtherance of its statutory, regulatory, contractual, or operational responsibilities.

Drones

Drones, unmanned aerial vehicles, and remote-operated aircraft are strictly prohibited on or near Belmont Park property. This policy applies to all guests, vendors, and unauthorized media. Violations may result in ejection, confiscation of equipment, and referral to law enforcement.

Wi-Fi

Complimentary Wi-Fi is available throughout Belmont Park for all guests. Connect to the NYRA network at entry.

ADA-accessible shuttles are available for guests requiring accessible transportation.

SIGNAGE & DISPLAYS

Signs, Banners & Flags

Unless otherwise specified, Belmont Park prohibits all signs, banners, flags, and posters on the premises.

Promotional Items & Product Samples

The distribution of promotional materials, free samples, unsolicited items, or advertising materials of any kind by outside parties is not permitted on Belmont Park property without prior written authorization from NYRA. This includes but is not limited to:

- Product samples or giveaways
- Flyers, pamphlets, coupons, or printed materials
- Branded merchandise or apparel
- Food or beverage samples
- Promotional signage or displays

Any individual or organization found distributing unauthorized promotional materials on Belmont Park property will be asked to cease immediately and may be removed from the venue. Items being distributed without authorization may be confiscated.

Brands, organizations, or vendors interested in promotional or sponsorship opportunities at Belmont Park should contact NYRA at tlippard@nyrainc.com.

ANIMALS

NYRA welcomes guests of all kinds to Belmont Park, but for the safety and comfort of our horses, our staff, and our guests, only service animals as defined by the Americans with Disabilities Act are permitted on Belmont Park property.

Service Animals

- Service animals as defined by the Americans with Disabilities Act are welcome at Belmont Park at all times
- Service animals must be harnessed, leashed, or tethered and remain under the handler's control at all times

• Emotional support animals and pets are not permitted at Belmont Park under this policy. Please refer to the Belmont Park Animals Policy for further information

Horses

Belmont Park is an active racing facility. Horses are present on the grounds at all times. Guests are strictly prohibited from interacting with, touching, feeding, or approaching horses without the express permission of NYRA.

Guests must not make loud noises, sudden movements, or engage in any behavior near the track, paddock, or barn area that may startle or distress horses. These rules exist for the safety of our guests, our horses, and our riders and will be strictly enforced. Interactions with racehorses are strictly prohibited. Any interactions with other horses are done so at your own risk.

FOOD & BEVERAGE

NYRA is committed to providing an enjoyable experience for all guests at Belmont Park. Our food and beverage policy reflects the tradition of racing as a welcoming, open-air experience while maintaining the safety, cleanliness, and enjoyment of the venue for all guests.

Outside Food

- Guests may bring outside food into Belmont Park for personal consumption only in the Backyard, West Lawn, and Infield
- Outside food is not permitted in any premium hospitality or dining area where full food service is available
- Outside food must be for personal consumption only. Catering equipment of any kind including chafing dishes, serving trays, hot plates, burners, and commercial food containers is strictly prohibited
- All outside food items are subject to inspection at entry
- No glass containers of any kind are permitted on Belmont Park property

Outside Beverages

- Non-alcoholic beverages in factory-sealed, non-glass containers are permitted for personal consumption
- One sealed, non-glass beverage container per guest is permitted through entry screening
- Outside alcoholic beverages of any kind are strictly prohibited regardless of container type
- All beverage containers are subject to inspection at entry

Alcohol

- Alcoholic beverages are available for purchase from licensed NYRA concessionaires throughout the venue
- Outside alcohol is not permitted under any circumstances
- NYRA and its concessionaire partners reserve the right to deny alcohol service to any guest at any time
- Guests who appear intoxicated upon entry may be denied admission in accordance with the Belmont Park Right of Admission Policy

- Guests must be 21 years of age or older to purchase or consume alcoholic beverages on Belmont Park property. Valid government-issued photo ID may be requested at any point of sale

Concessions

A full range of food and beverage options is available for purchase from NYRA concessionaires throughout the venue on all race days. All concessions operate on a cashless basis.

Water Fountains & Refill Stations

Water fountains are located throughout the building for guest use.

Cooler Policy

Coolers of any kind are not permitted on Belmont Park property. This applies to all areas of the venue, including the backyard, infield and West Lawn, and covers both hard-sided and soft-sided coolers of any size.

Guests are welcome to purchase a variety of food and beverages from NYRA concessionaires located throughout the venue. Please refer to the Food and Beverage policies Insert Link for what is permitted on the venue grounds.

Major Events

Separate food and beverage policies may apply for Belmont Stakes Racing Festival, Breeders' Cup, etc. Policies specific to those events will be communicated to guests in advance.

DRESS CODE

Belmont Park celebrates the traditions of horse racing, including the time-honored custom of dressing for the races. Guests are invited to embrace the occasion and express their personal style in a manner that reflects the elegance and spirit of the sport.

NYRA has established dress code guidelines for each area of the venue to ensure that all guests enjoy an experience appropriate to the setting.

NYRA reserves the right to deny entry to or remove any guest whose attire does not meet the standards outlined in this policy or is otherwise deemed inappropriate at NYRA's sole discretion. NYRA staff will address dress code concerns as early in the guest journey as possible, including at entry gates, to ensure a smooth and enjoyable experience for all.

General Admission – Ground Floor

Belmont Park's General Admission areas welcome guests in casual to smart casual attire. While no formal dress code is enforced, neat and appropriate attire is expected and encouraged.

Suggested Attire:

- Casual to smart casual attire
- Sundresses, skirts, and dressy separates

- Chinos, shorts, and collared shirts
- Clean, neat footwear
- Hats, fascinators, and creative race day headwear of all kinds

Not Permitted:

- Clothing with offensive, indecent, or inappropriate language or imagery
- Clothing displaying political statements or imagery. NYRA reserves the right to determine what constitutes a political statement in this context and will consult with legal counsel regarding specific enforcement guidelines
- Shirts and shoes are required at all times

Premium Areas & Dining

Belmont Park's Dining & Premium areas on the second floor offer an elevated race day experience. A polished yet relaxed dress code is recommended for all guests in these areas, reflecting the sophistication of the setting while remaining accessible and comfortable.

Recommended for Women:

- Dresses, skirts, or elegant separates
- Pantsuits and dress trousers
- Blouses, polo shirts, and smart tops
- Dressy flats, heels, wedges, or clean smart footwear
- Hats and fascinators strongly encouraged

Recommended for Men:

- Collared shirts including polo shirts, button-downs, and dress shirts
- Dress trousers, slacks, dress jeans, or khaki shorts
- Blazers, sport coats, and vests are optional but encouraged
- Closed-toe shoes required. Dress shoes, loafers, clean smart sneakers acceptable

Not Permitted in Dining & Premium Areas:

- Graphic tees
- Cargo shorts
- Frayed, torn, or distressed denim
- Athletic wear of any kind including tracksuits, sports shorts, and athletic footwear
- Flip-flops and open-toed shoes for men
- Clothing with offensive, indecent, or inappropriate language or imagery
- Clothing displaying political statements or imagery

Paddock & Winners Circle

The Paddock and Winners Circle offer guests an up-close racing experience. A smart and polished appearance is expected of all guests accessing these areas, in keeping with the significance of the setting.

Backyard & Infield

Belmont Park's Backyard and Infield areas offer a relaxed, festive atmosphere. Casual summer attire is welcome and appropriate for these areas.

Encouraged:

- Summer casual attire
- Comfortable, practical footwear. Grassy terrain is present throughout these areas and comfortable shoes are strongly recommended
- Festive and creative race day attire welcome

Not Permitted:

- Clothing with offensive, indecent, or inappropriate language or imagery
- Clothing displaying political statements or imagery
- Shirts and shoes are required at all times

Hat Culture

Hats, fascinators, and creative race day headwear are a defining tradition of horse racing and are warmly welcomed and celebrated across all areas of the venue on all race and event days. Guests are encouraged to express their creativity and personal style through their headwear.

PADDOCK, WALKING RING & WINNER'S CIRCLE

The Belmont Park Saddling Paddock, Walking Ring, and Winner's Circle are restricted areas with limited guest access to protect the safety of our racing Thoroughbreds and their connections. Guests in these areas should remain alert at all times and be prepared to follow directions from a NYRA Racing Official or NYRA Security Officer. Horses have the right of way in all areas.

Access

Access into the paddock, walking ring, and winner's circle is restricted to NYSGC licensees, guests who are accompanied by a licensee, credentialed media, or other credentialed guests as authorized by NYRA. Additional credentials may be required on specific race days or for individual races. Minors must be accompanied by a licensee or credentialed guest. Security reserves the right to deny entry to intoxicated people regardless of license or credentials. A smart and polished appearance is expected of all guests accessing these areas.

Prohibited Items

In addition to the items outlined in the NYRA Prohibited Items Policy, the following items are prohibited in the paddock, walking ring, and winner's circle:

- Food, alcohol, or drink of any kind, including water
- Lit cigarettes, cigars or vapes
- Service animals
- Opened umbrellas
- Strollers

NYRA Security, NYRA Racing Officials, or NYRA Veterinarians reserve the right to prohibit additional items as needed to protect the safety of horses and racing participants. Guests may be subject to additional screening measures to enter these areas.

Horse Safety

While horses are present in the saddling paddock or walking ring:

- Stay at least five feet away from the horse paths.
- Cross horse paths quickly and safely, and only when no horses are present on the paths.

- Do not stand on a horse path.
- Be alert and ready to move out of the way or to a safer location if a horse rears, kicks, flips, is loose, or any other activity that could cause harm.
- Do not sit or lie down in any area of the walking ring and paddock enclosure.
- Avoid unnecessary loud noises or distracting movement.
- Do not turn your back to a horse that is walking by.
- Do not touch or interfere with any horse, rider or groom.

Everyone in the walking ring and paddock enclosure shall be responsible for their own safety and shall not act in a manner that compromises the safety of the horses, riders, grooms or other guests in the walking ring or paddock enclosure. Give horses the right of way at all times. In the event of a loose horse or other incident, move to the center of the walking ring away from all horse paths, remain calm, and follow instructions from NYRA Security or NYRA Racing Officials.

While horses are in the saddling stalls, owners and guests are encouraged to observe from the walking ring. If entering the saddling paddock, proper footwear is recommended.

Winner's Circle

In addition to guidelines outlined above, NYRA may restrict access to the Winner's Circle for traffic control, safety, or capacity concerns. Due to the size and location of this space, additional caution is needed in this area during the running of the race as well as when winning horses are present.

VENUE INFORMATION

Merchandise

The Belmont Shop is located on the first floor near the West Entry. Stop in to find a full selection of official Belmont Park and NYRA branded apparel, accessories, and souvenirs. Whether you're looking for the perfect race day hat, a gift for a fellow racing fan, or something to commemorate a special visit, our team is happy to help. Store hours vary by event day.

Special Events

Belmont Park offers a range of private and special event spaces for corporate events, social gatherings, celebrations, and group outings, all set against the backdrop of one of the most iconic racing venues in the world. Whether you are planning an intimate private dinner, a corporate hospitality experience, or a large-scale event, our team would love to help bring your vision to life.

To inquire about availability, spaces, and packages, please contact the NYRA team directly at knatale@nyrainc.com.

A member of our team will be in touch to discuss your event needs, available dates, and pricing. We recommend reaching out as early as possible as spaces, particularly on race days, book in advance.

Umbrellas

Umbrellas are permitted in certain areas of Belmont Park and may be brought through entry screening. Umbrellas are not permitted on the apron, walking ring, in the Paddock or Winners Circle at any time. NYRA staff reserve the right to ask guests to close umbrellas in crowded or covered areas at their discretion.

On days where severe weather is anticipated, NYRA recommends guests consider a rain poncho as a practical alternative.

National Anthem

We love hearing from talented performers who are interested in being part of the Belmont Park experience. National Anthem performance opportunities are available on select race days and are a wonderful way to share your talent with our guests.

To submit a performance inquiry, please contact the NYRA team at cpikus@nyrainc.com:

Please include the following information in your inquiry:

- Name and contact information
- A brief biography or performance background
- A link to a recent performance video or audio recording
- Preferred dates

Our team reviews all submissions and will be in touch if your availability and performance style are a match for an upcoming race day. Due to the volume of inquiries we receive, we are unable to respond to every submission individually, but we appreciate your interest and enthusiasm for Belmont Park.

Coat Check

There is no public coat check available. All belongings must remain in your possession while at Belmont Park.

Announcements (Birthdays, Anniversaries, Proposals, etc.)

Celebrating a birthday, anniversary, or other special occasion at Belmont Park? We would love to help make your day even more memorable! Special announcements are available on select race days and are a fun way to mark the occasion with your group.

To submit an announcement request, please contact the NYRA team at 844-NYRA-TIX.

Please include the following information in your request:

- Name and contact information
- The nature of the occasion (birthday, anniversary, etc.)
- The name(s) of the guest(s) being celebrated
- Your preferred race day and date
- Any additional details you would like included in the announcement

Please note the following:

- Announcement requests must be submitted at 72 hours in advance of your visit to allow our team sufficient time to prepare
- Requests are subject to availability and are not guaranteed
- NYRA reserves the right to decline or modify any announcement request at its discretion

We love celebrating our guests and hope to help make your special day at Belmont Park one to remember!

Betting

There are two ways to place a wager at Belmont Park, in person at a betting window or self-service terminal, or digitally through the NYRA Bets app from anywhere on the grounds.

In Person:

Betting windows and self-service wagering terminals are available throughout Belmont Park on all race days. Guests may place a variety of wager types at all windows and terminals.

Cash & ATMs

The majority of services at Belmont Park are cashless, including concessions, ticketing, merchandise, programs and parking. There are ATMs and reverse ATMs onsite to assist those wishing to use cash.

Strollers

Strollers are welcome at Belmont Park and are permitted in all areas, except the paddock and Winners Circle. Strollers must be collapsed and stored when in Grandstand seating areas to ensure the safety and comfort of all guests. Strollers are subject to inspection at entry in accordance with the Belmont Park Screening Procedures Policy. Please note that strollers are not permitted on escalators at any time. Guests are asked to utilize the elevators throughout the venue for the safety of all guests.

Lost & Found

If you have lost an item during your visit, please report it to the nearest NYRA staff member.

Reporting a lost item during your visit:

- Report your lost item to any NYRA security personnel or Guest Services representative as soon as possible
- Provide a detailed description of the item including type, color, size, and any distinguishing features
- Provide your name and contact information so our team can reach you if your item is located
- Our team will conduct a search of the reported area and check items that have been turned in

Reporting a lost item after your visit:

- If you have lost an item during your visit, please report it to the nearest NYRA staff member.
- Please include a detailed description of the item, the date of your visit, your seating or general location within the venue, and your contact information
- Our team will search logged items and respond to your inquiry

Claiming a found item:

- All found items are logged and held securely by the NYRA security team
- Valid government-issued photo ID is required to claim a found item
- For high-value items such as wallets, phones, jewelry, and keys, additional verification may be required at the discretion of NYRA staff

Found Item:

If you find an item that does not belong to you, please hand it in to the nearest NYRA security personnel or bring it to the Guest Services located at West Entrance. Please do not leave found items unattended. NYRA appreciates the honesty and consideration of guests who turn in found items.

Please note: NYRA is not responsible for lost, stolen, or damaged personal belongings at Belmont Park. Guests are encouraged to keep personal items secure at all times during their visit.
